The Pharisees were a sect of Jews who believed that every little detail of the law had to be kept, at all costs. They often looked down on the common person, who wasn't as educated as they were. What question did they ask Jesus?

How did Jesus answer?

Did Jesus know what they were really thinking?

7. The first four lines of the Nicene Creed are very important. What do they mean, in your own words?

When you recite the Creed, today, try to really concentrate on the meaning of the words.
