

*"I came into this world for judgment,
so that those who do not see might see,
and those who do see might become blind."*

Today, we celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Lent. We read from John 9:1-41.

Jesus met a man who had been blind from birth. Do you know what it means to be blind? Blindness is a physical condition that keeps someone from being able to see correctly. You may see a blind person using a cane or being helped by a special dog assistant. Jesus helped the man who had been born blind, and called him to believe that He was the "Son of Man".

Jesus wants us to believe in Him also, and through our belief in Him we are called to be a "light" to others. Jesus wants us to help the poor, pray for the sick, do acts of loving kindness for others and speak to Him often in prayer. We learn more about Jesus each week by reading the Gospels, the "good news" about His love for each of us. This week, let us all pray for a strengthening in our belief and let's be a "light" of Jesus' love to others.

For More Fun:

- ✓ This week, try opening your eyes more to the beauty of our world. What new things can you discover in your house, your school or your church? Also practice using your senses of hearing, taste, touch and smell to experience God's blessings in new ways.
- ✓ This week, we celebrate the life of St. Isidore (4/04). Learn more about the lives of the saints at Saints.SQPN.com.
