

CatholicMom.com Mass Worksheet

Celebrating Our Catholic Faith

Name: _____

Sunday, April 13th, 2014
Worksheet for ages 11 to 14 years old

1. What day is it, today, in the Church's calendar?

What was different about the beginning of Mass, today?

2. How many Gospel readings did you hear, today?

From which books are these Gospel reading taken?

What event do we remember, today? What did Jesus do and what did the people do?

When Jesus was being welcomed enthusiastically by the people, did He know He was soon going to suffer His Passion and Crucifixion?

3. What is this coming week called?

What are Thursday and Friday called? What do we remember on these two days?

On Friday, Catholic churches around the world will do something unusual with their tabernacles. What will they do?

Try to go to Mass on Thursday and a Service on Friday. They're very meaningful and a great way to commemorate Holy Week.

4. Did you get a blessed palm to bring home?

Make sure you place this palm, or a piece of it, in your room where you'll see it every day.

5. Answer to last week's question: There is no sin for which God will not forgive you. The Church tells us we must go to Confession and be sorry for our sins.