3. Can you see the Stations of the Cross in your church? Yes No

If so, what do they look like? (Circle as many answers as you need to!)

They're small. They're large. They're made of wood. They're made of stone.

They're colorful. They're all white. They're hanging on the wall.

They're very beautiful. They look real. They're just numbers.

Have you prayed the Stations of the Cross this Lent? Yes No I'm not sure.

If so, did you pray with other people or by yourself? By myself. With others.

Try to make time, this week, to pray the Stations. You can actually walk around your church to pray them, or sit quietly at home to pray them.

Can you circle the names of the fourteen Stations of the Cross?

Jesus turns water to wine. Jesus is sentenced to death. Jesus carries His Cross.

Jesus falls the first time. Jesus meets Peter. Jesus meets His Mother.

Simon helps Jesus carry His Cross. Veronica wipes the face of Jesus.

Jesus visits the temple. Jesus falls the second time. Jesus meets the women.

Jesus falls the third time. Jesus talks to Pilot. Jesus' clothes are taken away.

Jesus is nailed to the Cross. Jesus prays to God. Jesus dies on the Cross.

The body of Jesus is taken down. Jesus is laid in the tomb.

4. How are you doing on your Lenten resolutions? Have you been able to do something or give up something for Jesus every day? What are some things you can do this week?

Give up gum. Not say anything negative or grumpy. Get up 10 minutes early.

Read a book about a saint. Help without being asked. Give up soda.

Read the Bible every day. Say a decade of the Rosary each day.
