

CatholicMom.com Mass Worksheet

Celebrating Our Catholic Faith

Name: _____

Sunday, March 15th, 2015
Worksheet for ages 11 to 14 years old

1. What day is it, today, in the Church's calendar?
2. How many weeks is it until Easter?
3. Which color represents this season of the year?
4. Are there Stations of the Cross in your church?

How many Stations are there?

How many Stations can you write down from memory?

5. There is something we enjoy about each church, such as a beautiful statue or large windows that let in the sunlight. What do you especially like about the church you're in today?

6. How are you doing on your Lenten resolutions? Have you been able to do things or give up things in order to grow in your faith? Here are some ideas of things you can do this week, or you can write down your own.

Pay attention at Mass.

Give up candy and gum.

Give up T.V.

Give up your pillow.

Pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

Pray in front of the tabernacle.

Say 'thank you' every day.

Watch a Christian movie.

Pray the Stations.

Choose a saint and try to imitate him/her.

Write a letter to Jesus.

Get up early to pray.

Pray the Rosary.

Say only positive, kind things.

Listen to Christian music.

Talk to God for 10 minutes every day.