“Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life.”

Today we celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Lent. In our Gospel reading from John 3:14-21, Jesus spoke with a man named Nicodemus, telling him that everyone who believes in Jesus will have everlasting life. God loves us so very much that he sent his only son, who was both human and divine, to give his life so that we might have life forever with God in heaven.

Jesus told Nicodemus that, "Whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God." If we are honest and good, we are not afraid to let others see our actions.
