Worksheet for ages 11 to 12 years old

1. What day is it today in the Church's calendar?
2. Who is speaking to the people in today's first reading?
3. How many books are there in the New Testament?
4. What is the theme of today's Responsorial Psalm?
5. From which book is today's second reading?

What is the writer of this book trying to say?

6. From which Gospel was today's reading taken?

Matthew and Luke are the two Evangelists we know the most about. Matthew was a Jewish tax collector, and not well liked among the people. In his Gospel, he continuously quotes the Jewish Scriptures. Luke was well educated and most probably a doctor. These are the only two Gospels that have the story of Jesus' birth.

7. Which Mystery of Faith did you recite today?
8. What are the three synoptic Gospels?
9. Which Gospel is the longest?

10. Answers to last week's questions: Thomas, called Didymus, was the one Apostle to doubt Jesus' Resurrection. He insisted on seeing with his own eyes. To this, Jesus replied. 'Blessed are those who have not seen but still believe.' What does this mean to you? Matthias replaced Judas as the twelfth Apostle.
