

CatholicMom.com Mass Worksheet

Celebrating Our Catholic Faith

Name: _____

Sunday, May 31st, 2015
Worksheet for ages 7 to 10 years old

1. Today is The Solemnity of the _____ Holy _____.
2. Today's first reading is taken from Deuteronomy, the fifth book of the Old Testament. Do you know what the first five books of the Old Testament are called?
The Pentateuch      The Books of Judea      The Duobooks      The Beginning

Circle the names of these 5 books.

Genesis      James      Exodus      Leviticus      Numbers      Mark      Deuteronomy

3. What is the Trinity?
(a) Mary, Jesus and Joseph
(b) The 12 Apostles
(c) The 11 Apostles (excluding Judas Iscariot)
(d) God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit
4. Monday, June 1st is the feast day of St. Justin Martyr. He was a very important 'apologist', meaning he defended the Catholic faith. St. Justin was born in 100 AD and died about 165 AD. He supported his faith in Asia Minor and Rome. The term 'martyred' (to die for one's faith) actually comes from this saint's name since he died for his faith.
5. From which Psalm is today's Responsorial? Which of the following is not a Psalm?
Psalm 23      Psalm 281      Psalm 21      Psalm 33      Psalm 149
6. How many Psalms are there in all? (You may have to look in a Bible to answer this one!)
270      333      150      30
7. What is the Rosary?
(a) It is a special prayer to the Blessed Virgin Mary, prayed with a set of beads.
(b) It is the prayer Jesus taught the disciples.
(c) It is a chant we say during Mass

8. Answers to last week's questions: Judas Iscariot was replaced by Mathias. Agnus Dei means 'Lamb of God' in Latin.