Tomorrow is the feast day of two very important saints, Saint Paul and Saint Peter. Paul was Jewish and a strong persecutor of the Church. He was converted on the road to Damascus. A light from heaven shone down around his group and he heard Jesus' voice. Paul (who was then known as Saul) went blind for three days. On the third day, a Christian named Ananias cured his blindness after the Lord visited him in a dream. Paul wrote most of the letters in the New Testament. Paul was not one of the twelve Apostles. Answer to last week's question: Red is the color used for a martyr's feast day and days commemorating Jesus' Passion. It also represents the Holy Spirit on Pentecost Sunday.
