Today is the feast day of St. John Chrysostom. He was born in AD 344 and died in 407. His mother was considered a model of virtue. His most powerful enemy was the Empress Eudoxia, who banished him twice, the second time to Pythuis at the very edge of the empire. He died on his way there.

Fun fact: The first book ever printed by a machine was the Catholic Bible.

Answer to last week's question: Revelation is the last book of the Bible.
