Today is the feast day of St. Francis of Assisi. He was born to a wealthy cloth merchant, who wished Francis to follow the same career. For twenty-five years, Francis led a sinful, wild lifestyle, never giving any thought to the church. While riding out to battle one day, he had a dream of God telling him to return home. Later, he heard the Lord telling him to rebuild the Church. When he sold his father's cloths for money, his father had him brought before the bishop. The bishop told Francis to return his father's money, telling him God would provide. Francis gave both the money and the clothes he was wearing to his father, saying he was not his son. St. Francis lived in poverty for the rest of his life. He is the patron saint of animals, merchants and ecology.
