Today is the feast day of St. Luke the Evangelist. There is not much solid information as to the birth of Luke. He is thought to be born a Greek and Gentile; his Gospel is the only one with the story of the Good Samaritan. Luke was not one of the 12 Apostles. He traveled with Paul to convert non-Christians and to spread the word of God. He is the patron saint of physicians and surgeons.

Answers to last week's questions: Pacem or pax means peace in Latin. The Bishop of Rome is the pope.
