

Read the Gospel and Color

“They can no longer die, for they are like angels;
and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise.”

32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - LUKE 20:27-38

Some Sadducees, those who deny that there is a resurrection, came forward and put this question to Jesus...

Today, we celebrate the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time.
We read from Luke 20:27-38.

For more fun...

In Luke's gospel reading for today, Jesus was speaking to the Sadducees, a group of religious leaders in Jesus' time who only believed in certain parts of sacred scripture and did not believe in the resurrection. In this reading, Jesus taught that the resurrection would indeed happen. He said to them:

"They can no longer die, for they are like angels; and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise. That the dead will rise even Moses made known in the passage about the bush, when he called out 'Lord,' the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; and he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive."

In the Nicene Creed we say the words, "I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen." In Jesus, we will rise again!

Read the Gospel passage in your family bible. Discuss as a family what it means to be "resurrected" and how you are newly alive through Christ's love.

Our Psalm

Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.
