“You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed.
By your perseverance you will secure your lives.”

33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - LUKE 21:5-19

*"You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed.

Today, we celebrate the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time. We read from Luke 21:5-19.

In this scripture passage, Jesus told his followers that there would come a time when everything they knew on earth would come to an end, even the massive temple which seemed so very strong to them that they thought it could last forever.

Jesus didn't want them (or us) to be afraid. He wants us to know that it is important that we always believe in him and follow his teachings, even though it may be hard at times.

He reminds us that the Holy Spirit will be with us; to give us the strength and courage we need to follow him and to spread his message of love.

Can you answer Jesus' invitation this week, to follow him, to live like him and to love others as he loved?

Our Psalm

The Lord
comes to rule
the earth with justice.
