1. What day is it today in the Church's calendar?
2. From which book of the Bible is today's first reading?

In this reading, the author states 'charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting'; what does this mean?

3. From which book of the Bible is today's second reading?
4. From which Gospel is today's reading taken?

What did the 'good servant' do in this reading?

How does this parable relate to your own life? How can you 'double' what God has given you instead of burying it in the ground?

5. In some monastic orders, the men and women who join are requested to give up their earthly possessions to focus solely on Jesus. What physical thing is most important to you and do you think you would be able to give it up?

6. The Catholic Church believes in four Archangels, Saints Michael, Gabriel, Raphael and Muriel (or Ariel). Saint Michael is depicted as a devoted follower to God and a fierce warrior. He is the patron saint of soldiers, mariners, the sick, paratroopers and police. Try to memorize this short prayer this week.

*Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.*
