"FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD THAT HE SENT HIS ONLY SON"

Today we celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Lent. In our Gospel reading from John 3:14-21, Jesus spoke with a man named Nicodemus, telling him that everyone who believes in Jesus will have everlasting life.

God loves us so very much that He sent his only son, who was both human and divine, to give his life so that we might have life forever with God in heaven. Jesus told Nicodemus that, “Whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God.” If we are honest and good, we are not afraid to let others see our actions.

FOR MORE FUN

★ This week, focus on letting all of your actions shine with the love you feel for your family, for God and for others! Be a light for Christ to all you meet!

★ Saturday March 17th is the Feast of St. Patrick! Do you know the story of St.

Patrick? He was kidnapped as a child and taken to Ireland then he escaped as a teenager and went home to his parents! When he was home, God called him to become a priest and return to Ireland. He converted so many people from their pagan ways that he became a Bishop! St. Patrick is the Patron Saint of Ireland!

★ Take some time this week to learn about another famous Patrick from Ireland who is on the path to being declared a Saint by Pope Francis; Father Patrick Peyton! Visit FamilyRosary.org to learn about his remarkable life.
