Worksheet for ages 11 to 14 years old

1. What day is it today in the Church's calendar?
2. From which book of the Bible is today's first reading?

Is this book in the Old or the New Testament?

Do you know what category this book belongs to? (For example, the Pentateuch, historical, prophetic, or wisdom.)

What does God say to us in this reading?

What are some ways that kids your age can follow this advice?

3. From which book of the Bible is today's second reading?

What does this author advise us to do?

4. From which book of the Bible is today's Gospel reading?
5. Did you say the Our Father (or Lord's Prayer) today?

Where did this prayer come from?

Do you know the Lord's Prayer in Latin? Even if you don't go to the Latin Mass, it's good to know this prayer in Latin since you'll hear it referred to in all kinds of places.

Here's the first line: Pater noster, qui es in caelis

Our Father, who are in Heaven.

(The internet has many sites that will help you with the correct pronunciation.)

The first six books of the New Testament are; Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, Acts, and Romans. Try to remember them in that order this week.
