

1. There was a large crowd listening to Jesus today. Where were these people from?
2. What people does Jesus say are blessed?
3. What does Jesus say those weep now will feel later?
4. What does Jesus say those who are "filled now" will be?
5. What Sunday in Ordinary time is it? What Gospel are we reading from today?
6. Why does Jesus say people will denounce his listeners as evil?
7. Where will the greatest reward be?
8. How will those who laugh now feel later?

Today is the feast day of Saint Alexis Falconieri. Alexis was born in Florence, Italy in 1200 to wealthy parents. He and six of his friends saw a vision of Mary, which inspired them to begin a new religious group dedicated to prayer. They decided to call themselves the Servites, and after finding a place to setup outside the city, all the men became priests -except Alexis. He said he was not worthy of such an honor, but helped build their new church and lived to be 110.

1. Today is the _____ Sunday of Ordinary _____.
2. The people in the crowd were from:
Judea Jerusalem Tyre All of these
3. Jesus says Blessed are the _____, _____, _____,
_____.
4. Those who are now weeping will _____.
Cry Sleep Laugh Run
5. Those who are filled now will be _____.
Happy Hungry Holy Angry
6. Today's Gospel is from _____.
Luke Jonah Matthew John
7. Those who laugh now will _____ and _____.
Sit and Stare Eat and Drink Tap and Sing Grieve and Weep

Today is the feast day of Saint Alexis Falconieri. Alexis was born in Florence, Italy in 1200 to wealthy parents. He and six of his friends saw a vision of Mary, which inspired them to begin a new religious group dedicated to prayer. They decided to call themselves the Servites, and after finding a place to setup outside the city, all the men became priests -except Alexis. He said he was not worthy of such an honor, but helped build their new church and lived to be 110.