

1. What Sunday in Ordinary time is it?
2. Who is Jesus talking to today? And what is the first thing Jesus says to do?
3. What should you do to those who take what is yours? How much repayment should you expect back from people you lend money to?
4. We should be merciful because who else is merciful?
5. What will happen if you stop judging?
6. If you forgive, you will be...
7. If you give, what will be given to you?
8. Do you know what the "Golden Rule" is?

Today is the feast day of Blessed Tommaso Maria Fusco. Tommaso was born in Italy in 1831 to noble parents. He became a priest and opened a school in his house. After spending some time as a missionary, Tommaso opened an orphanage, which was blessed by the pope. The charity he carried out wherever he went made Tommaso a pillar of Jesus's teaching and he was declared eligible for Sainthood. The process to make him a saint is still going on.

1. Today is the _____ Sunday of Ordinary _____.
2. In today's Gospel, Jesus talks to _____ a woman on the road his disciples a leper the birds
3. The first instruction Jesus gives is to love who?
4. How much repayment should you get from someone you gave money to? (a) all your money back (b) a dollar (c) one cent
(d) expect no repayment
5. Be merciful, just as your _____ is merciful.
6. If you forgive, you will be _____.
7. "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you" is known as the Golden _____.

Today is the feast day of Blessed Tommaso Maria Fusco. Tommaso was born in Italy in 1831 to noble parents. He became a priest and opened a school in his house. After spending some time as a missionary, Tommaso opened an orphanage, which was blessed by the pope. The charity he carried out wherever he went made Tommaso a pillar of Jesus's teaching and he was declared eligible for Sainthood. The process to make him a saint is still going on.