Today is Palm Sunday, when we remember the events leading up to Good Friday - and Easter Sunday! Today's Gospel tells us the story of Jesus' last days on earth with his disciples and those who followed him. We take the time at Mass to recreate this event so that we can fully understand all that transpired in these final days.

This week our Church will have many beautiful opportunities to remember and reflect upon the Passion of Jesus. Beginning with Holy Thursday, Catholic churches all over the world will remember Jesus' last supper with his apostles and the institution of the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. On Friday, no Masses are observed as we remember Jesus' death on Good Friday. And Saturday evening, the Easter Vigil begins as we await Easter morning!!!

FAITH IN ACTION

- ★ At Mass today you received palms! Be sure to put your palm on a cross or in a place that you will see it to remember this day!
- ★ With Easter one week away, take a moment to reflect on something you can do this week to prepare your heart, mind and soul for next weekend! Finish Lent strong - if you have not been able to keep your Lenten observance 100%, don't give up! Rededicate yourself to your promise in this final week and know that Jesus loves you for trying and offering it up to Him! It is the effort that counts - he does not expect us to be perfect!
