Solemnity of Christ the King, Lord of the Universe Matthew 25:31-46

Today is the very last Sunday of the Church's liturgical year.

In this week's Gospel, Jesus tells us exactly what He wants us to do in His Name: feed the hungry, provide clothing for people in need, visit the sick and those in prison. These are called the corporal works of mercy. By showing our love for others, we show our love for Jesus Himself. We must not only love Him but show our love for Him by loving others. We must do this in order to enter Heaven.

Activities:

- Take a moment to listen to and watch your classmates. Is there someone who seems lonely or left out? Make it a point to be kind to this person!
- Decide what you are going to do this week to show that you love Jesus by loving others through your deeds, words, and actions.
- There are seven corporal works of mercy: Feed the hungry, Give drink to the thirsty; Clothe the naked; Shelter the homeless; Visit the sick; Visit the imprisoned; Bury the dead. Pick one to do each day as a family for the next week. If you need inspiration, watch "My Time with Jesus - Corporal Works of Mercy" on EWTN's YouTube page.
